Code of Conduct for Officials, Players, Parents and Supporters

Abide by the Rules of the Game

Respect one Another

Do NOT Verbally or Physically abuse others

Do NOT use Foul Language

Do NOT disrupt training sessions or matches

Should a player, parent, guardian or supporter of the club breach this code, they will be informed verbally by a manager or official of the club. We hope this will prevent further breaches by the individual concerned. For serious or persistent breaches of the code the manager or an official of the club will ask the person concerned to refrain from attending Training sessions and Matches for an appropriate period. If the person concerned refuses to accept this action and is a parent or guardian, then it may be deemed sufficient to ask the player that they come to watch to no longer participate in training sessions and matches. This action will only be taken if there has been a serious breach or where previous warnings and suspensions have been ignored or proved to be ineffective.

Anyone who feels they have been unfairly treated should contact the management committee.

As a QWFC member, I have no objection to my photograph being taken and used in connection with Club activities e.g. Newsletter, Newspaper etc.
